

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, March 16. 1768.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 20.

Messina, Feb. 11.

THE Marquis de los Balbafes our Viceroy, has given Order for fitting out 3 Gallies here and 2 at Palermo, to cruise against the Corsairs of Tripoli, which infest our Seas and have lately taken several of our Tartans having on board Goods and Passengers for Catania and Syracuse. The 9 French Ships, which brought hither 2 Battallions of Soldiers and great Quantities of Ammunition, sail'd the 8th Instant to return to Toulon. Mount Etna has for several Days past made more Noise than usual, and emits a noisom Stench; which has put us in Apprehension of an Earthquake. By Order of our Regency Lifts are taking in all the Towns of the Men from 20 to 50 Years of Age; but to what end is not known.

Algeri in the Island of Sardinia, Feb. 17. By a Bark of Corsica, which was coming from Catalonia to Adiazzo, and Yesterday driven in here by hard Weather, we have an Account, that the confederate Fleet from Italy is arriv'd at Barcelona, having in their Passage lost 2 Transport-Ships but sav'd the Men that were on board them. The Marquis de Jamaica our Viceroy, who had been here a few Days, set out Yesterday with 2 Troops of his Life-guards for Cagliari, and in his Way will take a View of the new Fortifications of the Castles of Ocanna, Solarosso, and Caparra. He has made pressing Solicitations to the Court of Madrid for Succours of Men; because our regular Forces in this Island do not amount to 3000 Men. All the Country Militia, which were drawn down to the Coast, in Apprehension of the Enemy's Fleet, are dismiss'd and sent home.

Innsbruck, March 6. Above 1200 Imperial Recruits, who were detain'd in the adjacent Country about 3 Weeks by the deep Snows, proceeded Yesterday through Tirol for Italy. Three Troops of Dragoons are sent towards Kuffstein, to clear the Roads of Robbers who hinder the free Passage and Communication between this Place and Bavaria.

Luxembourg, March 16. The Troops that are quarter'd in these Parts are muster'd, and are to hold themselves ready to march by the 26th of this Month. 'Tis reported, that the French Regiments are to march towards Namur, and the Spanish towards Strasbourg. In this and other Places on the Moselle, great Magazines of Meal are storing, and great Numbers of Fascines and Palisades making.

Liege, March 16. The Weather having been very fair for some time, and the Enemy making some Preparations at Namur, our Garrison are commanded to hold themselves ready for marching on Occasion. Recruits arrive daily, to fill up the Dutch Regiments here. The new fortifications of our Citadel will be finish'd by the End of this Month.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated March 20.

Ostend, March 18. Yesterday the French Fleet sail'd out of the Road of Dunkirk, to the Number of 30 Men of War and Frigates; but Wind veering to the North they were oblig'd to Anchor in Newport-Pits.

Plymouth, March 12. The 10th pass'd by this Harbour to the Westward, Sir John Leake with the outward bound Fleet. Sail'd hence to join him her Majesty's Ship the Bristol; as also the Sturdy Frigate for the Canaries, 1 Ship from Stockholm, and 2 from Hambourg for Lisbon, and 1 of Middlebourg for the Maderas. Came in the Susanna, a French Prize from Martineco, taken and sent in by a Zealand Privateer.

Portsmouth, March 13. Last Night came in from the Downes her Majesty's Ships the Warwick and Valeur, and under their Convoy about 25 or 30 small Coasters and Merchant Ships. The East and West India Ships are still at Spit-head, with 10 Men of War.

Shields, March 12. Yesterday came into this Port a light Collier, last from Yarmouth Roads: The Master gives an Account, that 6 or 7 Sail of laden Colliers had got into Yarmouth-Roads, but the rest of the Fleet and 8 Men of War are in the Humber.

Yarmouth, March 12. Here are in these Roads her Majesty's Ship the Solebay and about 20 Sail of Light Colliers and Coasters.

Harwich, March 12. All the Pacquetboats are now on this Side, detain'd by Contrary Wind.

London, March 16.

Besides the 10 English Battallions which are to come from Ostend, as soon as they have a Convoy, (that appointed for them under Admiral Baker being gone after the Breft Squadron which is put out of Dunkirk;) and also besides the 11 Battallions and 10 Squadrons of the Forces in England, which are already marching or about to march to the North; There are still a considerable Number of Forces, which without any Detriment to the War abroad may be employ'd against the Pretender, if Occasion require, viz.

In England, 4 Battallions of Foot-Guards, 1 Squadron of Horse-Guards, a certain Number of Horse-Grenadiers; and the Regiments of Foot of Wade, Montjoy, Bowles, Mordaunt, Gorges, Macartney, and Marcar. There are also above 1000 Recruit-Horses, design'd for Flanders; from whence the dismounted Troopers will ('tis suppos'd) be brought, that they may serve here. There are likewise about 1500 Marines ashore, besides what are in the Fleet; and also Wynne's Regiment of Foot, landed some Days ago at Portsmouth, from Ireland.

In Scotland, on the Establishment, 6000 Men rais'd and raising.

And in Ireland, 11 Battallions, with 6 Squadrons of Horse and 6 of Dragoons.

Yesterday the Detachments of Horse and Foot-Guards, begun their March for the North.

A Swedish Ship arriv'd in the Humber, has sent up a Pacquet to the Admiralty, and Letters from several Masters of Ships to Merchants Concern'd in the East-Country Fleet, which continue still at Gottenbourg.
